PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Welcome to our church!

We're glad you're here! We hope you experience the warmth and welcome of Christ our Savior in this community.

If this is your first time visiting, please fill out a Visitor's Card (located in the pew in front of you) and place it in the offering basket later in the service. We would love to meet you and help you get connected.

This Order of Worship will be your guide to our service, and there are notes in the margins explaining the different elements of our liturgy.

Finally, if you would like to speak to someone who can answer any questions you may have about our church, please visit the Welcome Desk, which will be on your left after you exit the Sanctuary.

Liturgy Notes

Do you have questions about how we worship? This column answers the “what” and “why” of each element of our liturgy.

Call to Worship

The Call to Worship is traditionally the first element in a Christian liturgy, serving as the moment of consecration. God’s word is used to invite us into the sacred time of corporate worship, and we respond with our voices as an answer to His call.

Congregational Singing

A unique aspect of Christian worship is that we sing together. Our singing is an expression of love for God and joy in his gospel. Singing strong hymns grounded in the truths of our theology raises our eyes from awe of the created to awe of the Creator. Scripture commands us to sing. Beautiful voices are not required, but a community joining together to sing truth and to sing it with passion and conviction is beautiful to our God.

Invocation

The minister invokes the presence of God that is promised to those who gather in His name. We ask for God to join us in worship, to lead us in worship, and to be pleased with our worship.

REJOICE Declare the praises of God

Prelude My Heart Abounds with Pleasure (by Johannes Brahms)

Call to Worship from Psalm 95

MINISTER:

O come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

PEOPLE:

Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise!

MINISTER:

For the Lord is a great God,

PEOPLE:

The great King above all gods!

Hymn of Rejoicing Come, Thou Almighty King #101

Welcome, Announcements, and Pastoral Prayer

Scripture Reading Ezekiel 36:33-36 (Pew Bible p. 724)

Read by Hayley Ellis

LEADER:

All men are like grass, their glory like flowers of the field.
The grass withers and the flowers fall,

PEOPLE:

...but the Word of the Lord stands forever.

Confession of God's People

UNISON:

O risen Christ, we have dishonored the truth of your resurrection.

Victory is certain, but we are anxious.

Hope is secured, but we are cynical.

Blessings are boundless, but we are ungrateful.

New life is ours, but we resist it.

Death is defeated, but we fear it.

Jesus is Lord, but we fail Him.

Forgive our unfaithfulness, show us again the empty tomb, and transform our lives according to the power of the Spirit who raised Christ Jesus from the dead.

- Silent Prayers of Confession -

Repentance of God's People

MINISTER:

Do you confess that Jesus is Lord?

PEOPLE:

We do.

MINISTER:

Do you believe in your heart
that God raised Him from the dead?

PEOPLE:

We do.

Assurance of God's Pardon

 from Romans 10

MINISTER:

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Greeting of the Peace of Christ

Hymn of Renewal

How Great Thou Art #44

Confession of God's People

In the Confession of Sin we humbly agree with Scripture's claim that all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. This is the most honest moment of our week, as we confess our sin and shame together. We do this corporately through a unison litany or prayer and individually through a moment of silence for private confession.

Repentance of God's People

Our time of confession becomes a time of fresh commitment through corporate repentance. Together we boldly turn from all evil and offer our lives again to God. Only say these words if you are indeed willing to repent of your sins.

Assurance of God's Pardon

Confession and repentance is always met with the surety of God's grace. The minister proclaims to the penitent community words of pardon from Scripture, assuring our hearts of the grace that is already ours in Christ Jesus.

Greeting of Peace

We extend to others the grace that God has extended to us, greeting each other with the peace of Christ. In the midst of a fractured world filled with prejudice, hatred, and violence, we are a demonstration of God's reconciliation. Worshipers greeted one another with the words of Christ after His resurrection, which became the customary greeting of the early Church: "Peace be with you."

RESPOND Embrace the call of God

Confession of Faith

We confess together the convictional truths of orthodoxy by reciting the ancient creeds of our faith. We share these words with saints throughout the centuries as well as those throughout the world today. This also serves as a bold proclamation to the watching world of what we believe is true.

Confession of Faith from Westminster Catechism

MINISTER:

What is the chief end of man?

PEOPLE:

The chief end of man is to glorify God and to enjoy him forever.

MINISTER:

What is God?

PEOPLE:

God is a spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable, in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth.

MINISTER:

Are there more Gods than one?

PEOPLE:

There is but only one, the living and true God.

MINISTER:

How many persons are there in the Godhead?

PEOPLE:

There are three persons in the Godhead; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; and these three are one God, the same in substance, equal in power and glory.

Doxology Old Hundredth

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here be-low; praise him a-bove, ye heav'n-ly host: praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost. A-men.

Offering

The offering is received, not merely as a way to pay the bills, but as an act of worship. In response to the God from whom all blessings flow, we give freely, joyfully, and sacrificially to His beloved bride, the Church.

Offertory Prayer

Gospel Storytime:

After the Offertory Prayer, children ages 4 - Kindergarten may be dismissed to the Narthex Parlor for prayer, singing, and a lesson from the Gospel Story Bible. They will return to the Sanctuary at the end of the sermon for their Communion blessing.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Communion

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper is a holy ordinance, wherein Christ and his gospel are represented and applied to His people. Though the bread and wine are not literally the body and blood of Jesus, this meal is far more than a sentimental reminder. It is spiritual nourishment to our souls and a means of growth in His grace. Communion is the family meal of Christians, and all followers of Jesus who are in good standing with His Church are invited to partake.

Benediction

The minister raises His hands and pronounces God's benediction over the congregation, sending them forth with assurance from on high. Stretch forth your hands and open wide your hearts to receive the abundant blessings that are yours in Christ Jesus!

Prayer

Prayer is available after the service to any in need. The Elder on Call will be waiting by the communion table to pray with you.

Please note:

We offer both wine and grape juice in Holy Communion: wine is in the outer ring of cups, and the grape juice is in the inner rings of cups. Also, gluten-free bread is offered at the center table.

Children's Blessing:

Children (of any age) who have not professed faith in Christ are encouraged to come forward with their parents to receive a blessing from the pastor or officer.

Words of Institution

MINISTER:

Let us together proclaim the hope of the Church:

UNISON:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ shall come again!

MINISTER:

I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after supper, he took the cup saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Special Sunday School Classes

Monthly Parenting Class Next Sunday

The Family Ministry is starting a monthly Parenting Class on January 27, during the Sunday School hour in the Fellowship Hall. Mark Randle will be teaching the class about what it looks like to transition through life with your child. The future dates for this class are February 24, March 24 and April 7.

Trinity Update for TCPC Parents

"I want to personally invite any and all parents to a special Sunday School class on February 3 in the Fellowship Hall. Currently, only 15% of our school's population is made up of TCPC families. One of my biggest goals as the Interim Headmaster is to see that number increase. Trinity may not be the right education choice for your family, but I would love the opportunity to share with you why I believe it's a great option to consider. Come hear all about the school, its future, and an exciting new financial benefit that we are making available exclusively to TCPC members. If you are a prospective parent, or just want to learn more about the ministry, I would love for you to attend." - Robert

Mark & Will's New Combined Class

The two adult Sunday School classes led by Will Witherington and Mark Randle have combined for the spring semester, and will meet in the classroom in the Lower Level. We will be looking at the Beatitudes and parts of the Sermon on the Mount over these next few months.

Gospel Storytime

While we encourage children to participate in worship, we recognize that the sermon is uniquely challenging for both children and their parents. Therefore, during the preaching we will now offer Gospel Storytime, a supplemental discipleship time for ages 4 - Kindergarten. There will be prayer, singing, and a lesson taught from the Gospel Story Bible. Children will be dismissed to the Narthex Parlor (located next to the restrooms) at the beginning of the sermon, and will return to the sanctuary at the end of the sermon for their communion blessing. Also, we would love to have lots of volunteers for this, so please email Jennifer Matocha (jmatocha@tcpca.org) if you would like to help.

Garrisons Mission Lunch Today

The Garrisons are hosting a lunch in the Fellowship Hall today immediately following the 11:15 church service. They will share about their upcoming mission trip to Zambia, their role and commitment, plans for the hospital and remaining financial needs. Lunch and childcare will be provided.

TCPC Basketball League

It's not too late to sign up your team for the 2019 version of the TCPC Basketball League. Our league is a fun & competitive recreational church league for all skill levels. So gather your team (friends at school, work, neighbors, relatives, clubs, etc.) and register at tcpca.org/basketball. The cost is $500 per team payment. Our goal is ten teams of 8-10 players for college age and up. If you have any questions, email Nate Jones at njonestcpc@gmail.com. Practice games begin January 27, and the first game will be on February 3.

Inclement Weather Procedures

During inclement weather, individuals participating in a church function should use prudent judgment before traveling. If at any time a participant feels that weather conditions are dangerous, they should stay home and not participate.

If inclement weather forces us to cancel or delay any scheduled events, it will be posted on the website, social media, and emailed out to participants. Sunday morning worship services will not be cancelled for inclement weather; however, Nursery and Sunday School could be impacted. A church-wide communication will be emailed by 8:00 AM the morning of a cancellation with details.

Ministry Directors should make a decision and communicate to participants as soon as possible.

- Daytime event cancellations should be communicated by 8:00 am.
- Evening event cancellations should be communicated by 2:00 pm.

Good of the Bluegrass Conference

Registration is now open for our 2019 Good of the Bluegrass Conference! This year's speaker will be Rev. Russ Whitfield, and he will be speaking on the topic of "Neighbor Love," looking to the Bible to answer the question, "How do I love the people God has placed in my life who are different than me?" Also, there will be a Valentine's Day party at Talon Winery for all conference participants (cost included in registration price). Sign up at gbcon.org, or contact Will Witherington (wwitherington@tcpca.org) with any questions regarding the conference.

Wednesday Evening Women's Bible Study

The women's evening study meets each Wednesday at 7:00 in the basement conference room. They will be studying the same book that the morning group is doing: "The Son of David: Seeing Jesus in the Historical Books" by Nancy Guthrie. For more information, contact Kay Sox (kayrsox@gmail.com) or Anne Briggs (abriggs@trinitylex.org).

4 yr - 1st Grade Children's Choir

Children ages 4 - 1st grade are invited to come be a part of our children's choir! Rehearsals will be on Sundays beginning January 20 from 11:10 until 11:35 in Room 118. Parents need to both bring and pick up their child. The children's choir will sing in worship March 3. If you have any questions, please contact Suzanne Dovel at sdovel@tcpca.org.

Senior Adults Fellowship Luncheon on January 27

Please mark your calendars for our next Senior Adults Fellowship Luncheon on January 27. Please bring your favorite soup, salad, or dessert. Beverages will be provided. There will be a brief report on the results of the seniors survey. Please join us if you would like to share with and get to know other seniors. Please let us know if you plan to attend or would like to know more about the senior luncheons by contacting John Hicks at john.kingman.hicks@gmail.com
