PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Welcome to our church!

We're glad you're here! We hope you experience the warmth and welcome of Christ our Savior in this community.

If this is your first time visiting, please fill out a Visitor's Card (located in the pew in front of you) and place it in the offering basket later in the service. We would love to meet you and help you get connected.

This Order of Worship will be your guide to our service, and there are notes in the margins explaining the different elements of our liturgy.

Finally, if you would like to speak to someone who can answer any questions you may have about our church, please visit the Welcome Desk, which will be on your left after you exit the Sanctuary.

Liturgy Notes

Do you have questions about how we worship? This column answers the “what” and “why” of each element of our liturgy.

Call to Worship

The Call to Worship is traditionally the first element in a Christian liturgy, serving as the moment of consecration. God’s word is used to invite us into the sacred time of corporate worship, and we respond with our voices as an answer to His call.

Congregational Singing

A unique aspect of Christian worship is that we sing together. Our singing is an expression of love for God and joy in his gospel. Singing strong hymns grounded in the truths of our theology raises our eyes from awe of the created to awe of the Creator. Scripture commands us to sing. Beautiful voices are not required, but a community joining together to sing truth and to sing it with passion and conviction is beautiful to our God.

Invocation

The minister invokes the presence of God that is promised to those who gather in His name. We ask for God to join us in worship, to lead us in worship, and to be pleased with our worship.

REJOICE Declare the praises of God

Prelude The Holy City (by Weatherly/Adams)

Ron Whitley, piano

“I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband” (Rev 21:2). Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna forevermore!

Call to Worship from Psalm 145

MINISTER:

I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever.

PEOPLE:

Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever.

MINISTER:

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.

PEOPLE:

All your works shall give thanks to you, O Lord,
and all your saints shall bless you!

Baptism

11:15 - Audrey Monroe Johnson, daughter of Nate & Adrienne Johnson

Declaration to Our Covenant Children from the Church of Scotland

UNISON:

For you Jesus Christ came into the world.

For you He lived and showed God’s love.

For you He suffered the darkness of Calvary.

For you He triumphed over death and rose to new life.

For you He reigns at God’s right hand.

All this He did for you, Audrey, though you do not know it yet.

Repentance of God's People

MINISTER:

Is God love?

MINISTER:

Will you repent of your failure to love,
and recommit to love as you have been loved?

PEOPLE:

He is.

PEOPLE:

We will.

Assurance of God's Pardon from 1 John 3

MINISTER:

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.

Greeting of the Peace of Christ

Confession of God's People

In the Confession of Sin we humbly agree with Scripture's claim that all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. This is the most honest moment of our week, as we confess our sin and shame together. We do this corporately through a unison litany or prayer and individually through a moment of silence for private confession.

Repentance of God's People

Our time of confession becomes a time of fresh commitment through corporate repentance. Together we boldly turn from all evil and offer our lives again to God. Only say these words if you are indeed willing to repent of your sins.

Assurance of God's Pardon

Confession and repentance is always met with the surety of God's grace. The minister proclaims to the penitent community words of pardon from Scripture, assuring our hearts of the grace that is already ours in Christ Jesus.

Greeting of Peace

We extend to others the grace that God has extended to us, greeting each other with the peace of Christ. In the midst of a fractured world filled with prejudice, hatred, and violence, we are a demonstration of God's reconciliation. Worshipers greeted one another with the words of Christ after His resurrection, which became the customary greeting of the early Church: "Peace be with you."

Confession of Faith Heidelberg Catechism Question 1

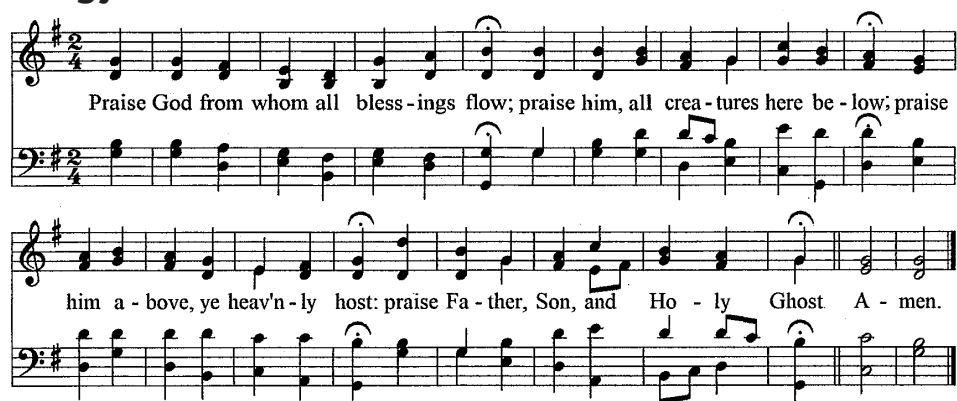

MINISTER:

What is your only comfort in life and in death?

PEOPLE:

That I am not my own, but belong—body and soul, in life and in death—to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

Doxology Old Hundredth

Praise God from whom all bless-ings flow; praise him, all crea-tures here be-low; praise him a-bove, ye heav'n-ly host: praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost A-men.

Offertory Prayer

Offertory As Water to the Thirsty (by K. Lee Scott)

As water to the thirsty, as beauty to the eyes, as strength that follows weakness, as truth instead of lies, as songtime and springtime and summertime to be, so is my Lord, my living Lord, so is my Lord to me. Like calm in place of clamour, like peace that follows pain, like meeting after parting, like sunshine after rain, like moonlight and starlight and sunlight on the sea, so is my Lord, my living Lord, so is my Lord to me. As sleep that follows fever, as gold instead of grey, as freedom after bondage, as sunrise to the day, as home to the traveller and all we long to see, so is my Lord, my living Lord, so is my Lord to me.

Gospel Storytime:

After the Offertory Anthem, children ages 4 - Kindergarten may be dismissed to the Narthex Parlor for prayer, singing, and a lesson from the Gospel Story Bible. They will return to the Sanctuary at the end of the sermon for their Communion blessing.

Confession of Faith

We confess together the convictional truths of orthodoxy by reciting the ancient creeds of our faith. We share these words with saints throughout the centuries as well as those throughout the world today. This also serves as a bold proclamation to the watching world of what we believe is true.

Offering

The offering is received, not merely as a way to pay the bills, but as an act of worship. In response to the God from whom all blessings flow, we give freely, joyfully, and sacrificially to His beloved bride, the Church.

Anthem

It is not just financial offerings that we give to God during this time but offerings of beauty as well. While the offering is collected, our choir offers up to God beautifully-composed music with text that meditates upon the truths of the gospel and the promises of God. God's gift of music (along with the work of his Spirit) helps us feel deeply and marvel at who he is, what he has done, and what he will do.

Scripture Reading Mark 12:28-34 (Pew Bible p. 848)

MINISTER:

The Word of the Lord.

PEOPLE:

Thanks be to God.

Sermon

The preaching of God's Word in the context of holy worship is the primary means of God's voice to His people. Our trust is not in the ability of the preacher, but in the promise that God, by His Spirit working in and through His word, is speaking to us in exceptional ways. Therefore, we open our minds and hearts to the uniquely formative power of ordained preaching.

“Why a Conference on Neighbor Love?”

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Please note:

We offer both wine and grape juice in Holy Communion: wine is in the outer ring of cups, and the grape juice is in the inner rings of cups. Also, gluten-free bread is offered at the center table.

Children's Blessing:

Children (of any age) who have not professed faith in Christ are encouraged to come forward with their parents to receive a blessing from the pastor or officer.

Words of Institution

MINISTER:

Let us together proclaim the hope of the Church:

UNISON:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ shall come again!

MINISTER:

I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after supper, he took the cup saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Holy Communion

Hymn of Response My Jesus, I Love Thee #648

Benediction

Postlude Prelude and Fugue in C minor (by J S Bach)

Today's Musicians

Jane Ritter, piano & organ

The flowers today are given in memory of Daniel Keith Logan, son of Grant and Vicki Logan.

Communion

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper is a holy ordinance, wherein Christ and his gospel are represented and applied to His people. Though the bread and wine are not literally the body and blood of Jesus, this meal is far more than a sentimental reminder. It is spiritual nourishment to our souls and a means of growth in His grace. Communion is the family meal of Christians, and all followers of Jesus who are in good standing with His Church are invited to partake.

Benediction

The minister raises His hands and pronounces God's benediction over the congregation, sending them forth with assurance from on high. Stretch forth your hands and open wide your hearts to receive the abundant blessings that are yours in Christ Jesus!

Prayer

Prayer is available after the service to any in need. The Elder on Call will be waiting by the communion table to pray with you.

Announcements

Officer Nominations

We are currently receiving nominations for 10 elders and 12 deacons. We want to encourage every communicant member to take this responsibility very seriously. Prayerfully look over the requirements and responsibilities included in the nomination forms and submit names of any you feel meet those expectations. The office of elder and deacon is a high and holy calling, and your participation in the nomination process is crucial. Nominations must be returned to the box in the narthex by February 24.

Veritas Sunday School Class

The Veritas adult Sunday School class led by Dr. Ron Whitley is starting a study of John Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion. Join us in Room 131 as we become acquainted with one of the most remarkable books in the history of Christian thought, one that significantly shaped Reformed theology.

Good of the Bluegrass Conference

This week is the Good of the Bluegrass Conference! Our speaker will be Rev. Russ Whitfield, and he will be speaking on the topic of "Neighbor Love," looking to the Bible to answer the question, "How do I love the people God has placed in my life who are different than me?" Also, there will be a Valentine's Day party at Talon Winery for all conference participants (cost included in registration price).

Sign up at gbcon.org, or contact Will Witherington (wwitherington@tcpca.org) with any questions regarding the conference.
